Description :

PDF-e731b | Do rich industrial nations underestimate the threat to their economic stability posed by demands for a new international economic order? Are the developing countries wrong to assume that their economic advancement depends on a transfer of wealth from the richer nations? Sir W. Arthur Lewis's provocative analysis of the present economic order and its origins suggests that the answer to both questio... The Evolution of the International Economic Order (Eliot Janeway Lectures on Historical Economics)
