Description :

PDF-b91a3 | Decision-makers in business and economics face a staggering array of problems. For example, managers of growing firms have to decide when to expand their business, governments have to decide whether to undertake large infrastructure investments, and managers of oil firms must decide how rapidly to deplete their reserves. While these problems seem quite diverse, they all share many important featur... Real Options in Theory and Practice (Financial Management Association Survey and Synthesis)
