Description :

PDF-160da | Since the early 1960s, the number of different investment instruments has multiplied. Currencies now float, and interest rates can fluctuate sharply. Money moves around the globe easily and around the clock. We don't wait for chart books to come in the mail; we don't even have the patience to download a file from the Internet. Thousands of people are using technical analysis in some form, but ... How Technical Analysis Works (New York Institute of Finance)
